Those who have a Microsoft account can use it to take notes and make audio recordings, which they can even share and edit together as a team – thus it is excellent for group work as well.

Users can have multiple notebooks in which they can create sections and tabs.

Switch between touch and mouse
If you're using OneNote on a Touch device, you can add this switch to the Quick Access Toolbar.

Display or hide the ribbon
Click any ribbon tab to display its commands. To keep it open, click the small pin icon near the lower right.

View or switch between online accounts
Click your account ID to change settings or switch accounts.

Manage files
Open, create, share, and print your notes. You can also change your account settings here.

Show notebooks
Click the notebook icon to see all of your open notebooks.

Show note containers
Mouse over any text to show its container. Grab the top bar to move it around.

Tag important information
Prioritize and organize notes with instantly searchable tags.

Find your notes
Use the Search box to find anything in your notebooks, or press Ctrl+E.

Create pages
Click Add Page to insert a new page.

View a full page
Click the double arrow for Full Page View.

Handwrite, draw, and sketch
Take notes in your own handwriting on a Touch-capable PC.

The screenshot shows the OneNote interface with a notebook titled "Company Picnic Plans". The ribbon is visible at the top with tabs for FILE, HOME, INSERT, DRAW, HISTORY, REVIEW, and VIEW. The HOME tab is active, showing options for Paste, Cut, Copy, Format Painter, and Basic Text. The DRAW tab is also visible. The main content area shows a list of "Follow-up items" with checkboxes: Contact the caterer, Book the band, Follow-up on safety, and Send out park directions. Handwritten notes in blue ink are visible, including "Park? Campus?", "Company Picnic", "Band", "Entertainment", "Paddle Boats", "Games", "Food", "Soda", and "Pie". The right sidebar shows the "Add Page" button and a list of pages.

Excellent for group work.

It saves your work automatically at regular intervals.

It can also record audio or send video messages.

Advantages

- available on a wide range of devices (platform-independent)
- useful widgets available for Android, so you can even draw from the home screen
- continuous synching with your Microsoft account
- plug-ins can be added, e.g. Onetastic

- suitable for systematization
- notes are available from anywhere

Disadvantages

- the mobile application does not have as many features/functions as the desktop one

Usage in teaching/learning

- creating and sharing notes in group work
- (collaborative) content collecting
- mathematical operations can also be performed with the application
